FRANKLY SPEAKING TO PERFORM AT FAMOUS OC FAIR GOURMET FOOD TRUCK GATHERING!

Frankly Speaking, a Los Angeles based Rock Classics Cover Band, has been selected to showcase at this year's highly anticipated "Gourmet Food Truck" event at the OC Fairgrounds. More than just an annual fair, the OC Fairgrounds are home to year-round events for audiences of all ages. This weekly event runs every Wednesday evening from July 15 – August 14.

The ninth largest fair in the United States, the Orange County Fair is held every summer in Costa Mesa, California. The fairgrounds' 150 acres has been the home of the fair since 1949 and the annual fair has expanded to an annual 23 day summer event since its inception in 1890. Operating year-round, the OC Fairgrounds are now host to a variety of events including the Food Truck Fair, the Gem Faire, Themed Block Parties and a Christmas Tree Lot.

This year's theme for the Gourmet Food Truck Fair is "Let's Eat, and while dining on gourmet food offerings hungry visitors will be delivered an audible feast of Rock Classics performed by Frankly Speaking. A trio, these professional musicians will be performing a wide variety of music by artists including: Led Zeppelin, Creedence Clearwater, AC/DC, Ozzy Osbourne, Bad Company, Aerosmith, Santana and Journey.

Frankly Speaking's performance will take place on Wednesday December 7th from 6 – 9pm, at the OC Fairgrounds, located in Costa Mesa at 88 Fair Drive. Venue Phone: 714-708-1500.

Tickets are not required, and a complete events calendar is available online at <http://www.ocfair.com>

About the band: Musicians Institute Professor Frank Hoffmeyer brings "touring talent to the local clubs" by collaborating with professional musicians when they are "off" the road. Bringing new artists into the mix brings freedom and uniqueness to each and every performance. "Frankly Speaking gives Los Angeles' top musicians the opportunity to bring their voice, and style, to the table. You will be back for more." noted recent guest singer, Megan Dawn.
